

for all Americans, cutting poverty in half in 10 years, additional economic stimulus, increased foreign assistance, combating global warming and establishing energy independence, providing comprehensive education, and providing health care to veterans as an entitlement (by a recorded vote of 84 ayes to 348 noes, Roll No. 188); Pages H4437–46

Jordan amendment in the nature of a substitute (No. 2 printed in H. Rept. 111–73) that sought to set spending levels, revenue levels, and deficit levels at lower amounts than what is projected by the CBO baseline or what is proposed in the President's budget request. The substitute would provide defense funding at the President's level and for non-defense discretionary spending, the substitute provides a hard freeze to non-defense discretionary spending, plus a 1 percent reduction to prior year spending levels, and also assumes other savings from reductions to lower-priority spending (by a recorded vote of 111 ayes to 322 noes, Roll No. 189);

Lee (CA) amendment in the nature of a substitute (No. 3 printed in H. Rept. 111–73) that sought to build upon the investments made by the President's budget and the Majority's budget. However, the budget would build on these investments by immediately repealing the 2001 and 2003 Bush-era tax cuts that benefit the wealthiest Americans. The budget also would add a 0.565 percent surtax on adjustable gross income exceeding $500,000 for individuals ($1 million for joint filers). The budget would shift those savings and additional revenue towards Education, Health Care, Job Training, International Aid, Justice, Transportation, and Veterans, while still producing a 5 year deficit that is $67 billion smaller than the Majority's budget (by a recorded vote of 113 ayes to 318 noes with 1 voting "present", Roll No. 190); and Pages H4460–69

Ryan (WI) amendment in the nature of a substitute (No. 4 printed in H. Rept. 111–73) that sought to spend $4.8 trillion less than the President's budget over 10 years; set spending levels which are 20.7 percent of GDP; freeze non-defense/non-veterans spending; borrow $3.6 trillion less than the President's budget over 10 years; seek to hold debt to 65 percent of GDP; and put forward a long-term budget to bring debt under control. The substitute also sought to permanently extend 2001 and 2003 tax relief; permanently fix the Alternative Minimum Tax; create 2.1 million more jobs than the Democrats' budget; suspend capital gains taxes through 2010; and reduce the corporate tax rate to 25 percent from the current 35 percent. The amendment also sought to provide $5 billion over the President's budget for Defense; $540 million over the President's budget for Veterans; to save $50 billion annually for war or unmet defense needs; and provide for health and retirement security by reforming programs to ensure they provide benefits for future beneficiaries (by a recorded vote of 137 ayes to 293 noes, Roll No. 191). Pages H4469–87
